Application Lifecycle Infographic and Details

The general process for obtaining a license includes the following steps:

- Application Submission – Applicant submits a complete application and payment of application fee to the City Clerk.
- Administrative Completeness – The office of the Director of Engineering & Land Use will determine Administrative Completeness (within 10 business days of stamped receipt)
 - For applications deemed Administratively Incomplete:
 - The Applicant will be notified of same by the office of the Director of Engineering & Land Use with a list of deficiencies.
 - The Applicant may correct same and must resubmit within forty-five (45) days (without an additional application fee).
 - The application process and timing will restart upon receipt of revised documents.
 - For applications deemed Administratively Complete:
 - The Applicant will be notified of same by the office of the Director of Engineering & Land Use.
 - The application documents will be transmitted to the Evaluation Committee.
- Evaluation Committee (EC) – Technical Review
 - The EC shall provide written technical review comments to the Advisory Committee (AC) for further consideration within thirty (30) business days.
 - A copy of the written communication shall be transmitted to the Applicant.
 - In the event the EC determines substantial technical deficiencies in the application documents, the EC may request additional or revised information from the Applicant.
 - The Applicant shall provide responses within thirty (30) business days.
 - Responses not received within the aforementioned timeframe will be considered as abandonment of the application.
- Advisory Committee (AC) - Endorsement Recommendation
 - Upon receipt of technical review comments from the EC, the AC shall review the findings of the EC and determine their agreement with the findings within thirty (30) business days.
 - The AC shall NOT recommend endorsement of an application to the Mayor and Council for the following reasons:
 - The Applicant has materially failed to complete any portion of the application;
 - The Evaluation Committee technical review indicates substantial technical deficiencies; OR
 - Issuance of a license would be contrary to the public health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the City of Rahway.
 - Absent a reason for denial, the AC shall submit a written recommendation of application endorsement to be added to the next available Mayor and Council Meeting for resolution adoption.
- Adoption of Endorsement Resolution - If recommended for endorsement, the Mayor and Council will take action upon the recommended resolution at their discretion.
- Land Use Board Approval - Upon receipt of a resolution of endorsement by the Mayor and Council, the final step of the application process will be for the Applicant to obtain an approval from the appropriate land use board of the City of Rahway for the specified site.
