FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RAHWAY POLICE INVESTIGATES TWO VEHICLE CRASH ON ROUTE 1

RAHWAY, NJ – January 4, 2025 – At approximately 12:07 PM, Rahway Police responded to a rear-end collision on Route 1 South near East Grand Avenue.

The crash involved a 2017 Chevrolet Traverse, driven by Edinalva Silva-Reis, a 46-year-old resident of Belleville, NJ, and a 2010 Dodge Charger, driven by Andres Figueroa, a 43-year-old resident of Hazle Township, PA.

The investigation revealed that Figueroa displayed signs he was under the influence. He was arrested at the scene and transported to University Hospital for a medical evaluation while in police custody. He was later released on multiple summonses pending a court appearance.

This remains an active investigation. Anyone with information is urged to contact the Rahway Police Department at (732) 388-1900.

“All motorists must take responsibility for driving safely and soberly,” stated Chief Law Enforcement Officer Shawn Ganley. “The Rahway Police Department is dedicated to ensuring the safety of our community.”

All charges are accusations, and individuals are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
